

Plese respect our need for rest and privacy. We live in a now 24 hour world, seven days a week. We work hard all day, then continue that pace to after school activities. Weekends are even worked. If we get a chance to sit down and rest or play a game with our kids... we wouldn't want to be interupted like this. Please consider my plea.

Thanks for your time,
Donna Keown